A typical day in my life includes... my day is like no other. I have the opportunity to be a plastic surgeon, a businessman, a teacher, a coach and mentor. I feel honored that patients trust me with their care and allow me to be a part of a very personal journey and transformation. I am part of a specialty that allows me to feed my desire to build and create businesses and teams of people that can help others. I enjoy both the clinical and surgical sides of being a plastic surgeon, as well as the ability to educate people on our specialty and the specific plan that will achieve their goals as a patient. The business of aesthetics is exciting and it is amazing to be in a place where I can help set the standard for excellence in our trade.

My family is... the strongest pillar in my life and really is the foundation of who I am as a person. My wife is my best friend and biggest supporter as we continue to experience life. My parents have been the foundation for me as I have grown up and have encouraged me to find joy wherever my life leads me. I am fortunate to have my parents live close (Mesa) so that we can be with them as often as our busy schedules allow. My brother lives in Seattle and although I do not get to see him as often, he also is a strong factor in my life and I admire him tremendously.

If I could have dinner with anyone it would be... me on my 80th birthday. I would ask myself advice about what is really important to worry about versus all the little things that I worry about daily that really don't make a bit of difference for the future.

One thing I cannot live without is... music. I listen to music at home, in the car, in the operating room, golfing, etc.

I am inspired by... people that are positive, open-minded, generous, and goal focused, while squeezing every drop of enjoyment out of each day.

My first job was... as a paper delivery boy for the local town newspaper in Albany, Oregon.

Always... show gratitude and humility.

Never... be quick to judge and criticize.

Dream Team

For most patients, a diagnosis of breast cancer often comes with significant concern over the possible loss or deformity of the breast. However, many patients are unaware of the advances that have been made in the field of breast reconstruction. In most cases, Dr. Gawley can reconstruct a woman's breast following mastectomy or lumpectomy with outstanding, natural results. Dr. Gawley understands that improving self-image and sense of wholeness are equally important and an integral part of the treatment and recovery from breast cancer. In short, recovery from breast cancer treatment no longer means living without breasts.

Dr. Gawley's passion for breast reconstruction continued as he worked closely with Dr. Linda Liu. He was introduced to a local foundation that was equally passionate about providing a quality of life to patients called Don't Be A Chump! Check For A Lump!. The Foundation works to educate the community on breast cancer awareness and provides direct assistance to breast cancer patients with their wig program.

Giving Back

Holly Rose, Dr. Gawley and the “Wig” Girls at Gawley Plastic Surgery’s annual patient appreciation and fundraising event.

Hi! I’m Holly Rose, the founder of the local non-profit Don’t be a Chump! Check for a Lump! I.R.S. 27-4626148. Our mission is to make a difference in the fight against breast cancer through education, prevention and direct assistance with free wigs and free mammograms.

I founded our non-profit after going through breast cancer at the age of 39. In sharing my personal experience, I quickly realized women were neglecting their breast health, and the majority of women, from the CEO, to the teacher, to the waitress, were uneducated on the facts regarding breast cancer and tips for prevention. I also discovered another gap in our community. Women going through breast cancer were going without wigs due to lack of funds.

Losing my hair was one of the most devastating side effects of my chemotherapy. It had nothing to do with vanity. It was the fact that my youngest daughter would not hug me if I wasn’t wearing a wig. I just didn’t look like mommy any longer. I looked like the face of cancer and I scared her. I was very fortunate that I could walk into a wig shop and pick out a beautiful wig that looked exactly like me, like mommy. Unfortunately, most insurance companies do not cover the cost of a wig.

While going through breast cancer I was showered with so many acts of kindness. It was life changing for me. I wanted to give back, and so I founded Don’t be a Chump! Check for a Lump! to make a difference in the fight against breast cancer through education, prevention and direct assistance.
